*Malawi: [Former education minister Chipembere, who began a guerrilla campaign against Prime Minister Banda last month, has now warned Banda that he will strike again this week and seize control of the government. Chipembere's raid of 12 February on a district headquarters less than 100 miles from Zomba, the capital, indicated that he can make significant trouble. His followers, however, probably could not seize Zomba except in the unlikely event that the two infantry companies and the substantial police force there defect to the dissidents.]
